KETTELER WAS SHOT FOUR TIMES

GERMANY IS GOING FOR REVENGE.

The Emperor Says That Terms Shall be Dictated to the Chinese From the Pekin Palace—McCalla Says That 50,000 Troops Are Needed for the Relief of the Ministers—Situation More Desperate.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Tien-Tcin, July 3.—A courier from Sir Robert Hart, inspector general of customs at Pekin nas just arrived, having left Pekin Monday. He reports the situation desperate, and says that when Von Ketteler and his secretary attempted to visit the Tsung Li Yumen, he was shot four times and died in the rooms of the Tsung Li Yumen, while the secretary succeded in escaping.

All the legations except the British, German and Italian were destroyed. The diplomats and missionaries in the British legation are under a rifle fire and cannon command the legations, though this is not being used.

THE EMPEROR'S BIG WORDS.

Berlin, July 3.—Addressing a detachment of German marines which sailed from Wilhelmhaven for China yesterday, Emperor William made a most remarkable speech, during which he notified the world of Germany's intention to avenge the murder of Von Kettler and the missionaries and to dictate terms to the Chinese from the palace at Pekin.

TWO MORE MINISTERS REPORTED KILLED.

Paris, July 3.—It is rumored here that the British embassy here has been notified that tne French and English ministers at Pekin have been murdered. The embassy refuses to confirm the report.

50,000 SOLDIERS REQUIRED

Cheefoo, July 3 —It is impossible to start for the relief of Pekin at present. Capt. McCalla, commanding the Newark, estimates that 50,000 soldiers will be required for the rescue of theministers.

GERMAN MINISTER WAS KILLED.

Was Pulled From His Horse by a Mob and Beaten to Death.

Berlin July 2.—Privy Councilor Hamann informed the correspondent of the Associated Press today, that the official dispatch announcing Baron Von Ketteler's assassination was received here early today. It was based upon a direct, written message conveyed from Pekin and signed by a member of the German legation at Pekin and Sir Robert Hart, the inspector general of customs. It was addressed to the commander of the European forces at Tien-Tsin, and was forwarded June 29, by Consul Zimmeran to the German consul at Che Fu. The message contained a number of interesting details. Baron Von Ketteler, while riding on horseback to the Foreign Office, was attacked by a large number of Chinese, who pulled him off his horse and beat him to death. An interpreter who was with him was seriously injured, but escaped and subsequently reached the German legation.

Herr Hamann supposes that there was more bloodshed at the legation, the destruction of which he declares was more alarming because the message adds that the conditions of whites in Pekin was desperate and aid was imperatively needed. It was also announced that the ammunition of the legation guards was almost exhausted. That when Mr. Hamann was asked whether the course of Germany, or that of the other powers toward China will be averted by the assassination of Baron Von Ketteler, he replied that he was unable to answer the question because Count Von Buelow, Minister of Foreign Affairs, left here yesterday evening to visit Emperor William, at Wilhelm's Haven, before the alarming news was received here. It is supposed Count Von Buelow will forego his vacation and remain in Berlin. Herr Hamann was also asked if the Chinese minister here would be given his passports, but the privy councillor did not reply.

How much did you pay for that horse? asked the ice man. Seventy-five dollars a front foot," answered the real estate agent.—Indianapolis Press.

The Total in the Morgues This Morning From the Great Fire Was 81.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Hoboken, July 3.—The search for bodies lost by the great fire of Saturday went on all night. Between midnight and seven this morning fourteen bodies were recovered, seven being taken out at one spot under the Thingvalla pier where so many of the Saale's people floated. The total in the morgues this morning was 81.

A Young Girl's Heroic Effort.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Milford Del., July 2.—Miss Dixie Sipple, a pretty society belle of this town made an heroic rescue today when she saved from drowning a lad in the Mispellon river. She was taking a morning row in her racing shell when she saw the boy struggling in the current. Without hesitation she plunged below the surface, and pulled him out as he was sinking the last time

FOR THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

THE BATTLE GROUND IN READINESS.

It Will be One of the Most Successful Celebrations Ever Held---People Will Come from Far and Near---Orator of the Day and Other Guests Arrive This Evening---Southern Will Run a Convenient Schedule.

Tomorrow is the glorious Fourth—the day in which patriotic Americans celebrate their country's independence. The people of Greensboro should take a special delight in the day, since they are privileged to celebrate Independence Day on the grounds of the decisive battle of the war which won for us our political freedom.

Moore than usual interest attaches to the celebration at the Guilford Battle Ground this year. Many visitors of note and a large number of the citizens of Greensboro, as well as from many sections of the State, will be present and participate in the celebration.

Everything at the Battle Ground is in proper shape for the ce ebration, which promises to be one of the most successful ever held. The grounds have been improved and beautified and many other things done to add to the attractiveness of the place. The decorating committee has done its work well.

The music committee, composed of Messrs. R. D. Douglas, J. M. Reece and J. G. Fowler, has secured the services of two good bands to furnish music for the occasion. The High Point Band will arrive in the morning and will be joined here by the Proximity Band.

Several visitors have arrived during the day, and quite a number will come in this evening and tomorrow morning. Gen. H. V. Boynton, the orator of the day, will arrive from Washington this evening at 7:10, being accompanied by Col. James E. Boyd.

The reception committee is composed of Mayor Z. V. Taylor Dr. George Mebane, and Messrs. H. C. Berger, R. P. Gray, John S. Michaux, R. D. Douglas and R. K. King.

For the accommodation of those attending the celebration, the Southern Railway has arranged a very convenient schedule for the day. Trains will leave the old C. F. & Y. V. station, in this city, at 7:30, 8:20, 9, 9:40, 10:20, 11 and 11:40 a. m., and 12:30, 1:30, 2:10, 2:50,3:30, 4:10, 4:50, 5:30 and 9:25 p. m. It is a run of only 20 minutes to the Battle Ground. Persons can leave the Battle Ground on the return within from five to ten minutes after the arrival of each train from Greensboro.

The Meeting of the Cinnatti.

The State Society of the Cincinnati will hold its annual meeting in the club rooms of the Merchants' and Manufactuers' Association this evening.

After the meeting of the Society this evening, and again at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening, the Merchants' and Manufactuers' Association will have an informal stag reception at their club rooms, complimentary to the distinguished guests of the Guilford Battle Ground Company who will be in the city. The members of the Association and their friends are invited to be present.

Baseball Tomorrow.

Greensboro and Madison will play a game of ball at Athletic Park tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. A good game may be expected, as both teams are in good shape. Mr. C. O. McMichael, the mayor of Madison, will arrive with his team tomorrow morning.

Greensboro's line-up will be as follows: Watson, W., c.; Sheeler, p.; Crutchfield, 1b.; Taylor, 2b.; Denny, ss.; Watson, R. 3b.; Ross, l. f.; Hill, c. f.; Causey, r. f.

A CARD FROM MR. McALISTER.

He Has Been Grossly Misrepresented and if the Kansas City Platform Has But One Plank in It He Will Stand on It.

To the Editor of the Telegram:

I was informed yesterday afternoon that it was current on the streets that I had stated on the floor of the convention Saturday that if the dispensary primary was held in August there were forty or fifty dispensary Democrats who would bolt the ticket. I desire to say that I made no such statement, nor any statement which would bear any such construction. What I did say was this, that it would be bad politics to put the dispensary primary at the August election for the reason that there were forty or fifty dispensary Democrats who would take off their coats and fight for the amendment if there were no other issue, but whose attention would be divided between the amendment and the dispensary if that issue were forced upon them. Those who heard me understand this to be my meaning perfectly. This was an argument current on the floor of the convention. Nothing whatever was said about bolting, and I have beeu grossly misrepresented in the matter.

Four years ago I stayed out of all conventions in order that I might be free to vote my convictions on the money question, and my vote in 1896 on this question was against my party, and I made this thoroughly understood at the time. Nobody was left in any doubt as to where I stood. I have understood that Messrs Moses H. Cone, C. N. McAdoo and other antidispensary leaders voted against Mr. Bryan in 1896. I want to take this occasion to say that while I have no apologies to make for my attitude on the money question four years ago, I have this regret about it, that I set a very bad example which was followed in a wholesale manner by Greensboro Democrats in the last city election.

I want to avail myself of this opportunity to say further that I believe the hope for the future welfare and glory of North Carolina and the South rests with the great Democratic party, and that any Democrat whose lot has been in North Carolina ought to think longer than I did in 1896 before allowing his individual predilections to outweigh his alleigance to his party. Ever since this campaign opened I have been advising those who thought as I did in 1896 to line up this year with Democracy and support its candidates from President to constable. I do not know what kind of a platform the Kansas City convention is going to give us, but if there is only one plank in the platform and that one is 16 to 1, I propose to take my stand on it and support the nominee of the convention. A. W. McALISTER.

THE DISPENSARY STATEMENT.

Double the Amount of Revenue Received From Saloons---As to the Cost of Prosecutions.

Reference to the annual statement of the Greensboro dispensary, published in today's paper, will show the institution to be in a prosperous condition. The total receipts for the first year have been $44,813.74 and the disbursements $44,713.36, leaving a cash balance of $100,38. The income to the city has been $8,000 and to the county $2 500. This is double the amount received by the city and three times the amount received by the county under the saloon system.

While the revenue has been greater under the dispensary than under the saloon system, some have contended that it was overbalanced by the expense of prosecuting violators of the law, and the solicitor of the district has been quoted to substantiate the assertion. When seen in regard to the statement accredited to him on the floor of the Democratic county convention by Mr. R. R. King Saturday, to the effect that for every two dollars received from the dispensary the county was paying out one dollar in prosecuting offenders, Solicitor Brooks said he was preparing a statement that would explain the conversation between him and Mr. King.

Messrs. W. B. Stewart, J. W. Schoolfield, J. D. Burch and W. G. Lewis will go to Winston tomorrow to attend the annual meeting of the Letter Carriers' Association of North Carolina.

BRYAN DEMANDS OLD RATIO

WILL NOT RUN WITHOUT 16-TO-1.

If This is to be Left Out of the Platform the Convention Will Have to Seek Another Candidate—Mr. Bryan Appears in the Roll of Supreme Dictator—May Go to the Convention and Fight for Silver—The Great Desire for Seats in the Convention.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Kansas City, July 3.—The delegates to the convention find themselves confronted today with the possibility of a personal visit from Bryan. Metcalf, his spokesman, threatens if 16 to 1 was not put in the platform, Bryan would hurry here on a special train and make the fight for silver on the floor of the convention, and decline to take the nomination if the particular rat o is omitted. To this National Committeeman Gaban, of Illinois, replied: "If Bryan will not run on the platform the convention makes, we can nominate somebody else d——d quick."

But Bryan will not be required to come here. His personal influence is so great, that despite the wishes of a large number of delegates opposed to to silver and the mention of ratio, both will be incorporated in the platform just as it came from his hands. Judge Tibbitts, of Lincoln, says that Bryan will not run on any other platform than sixteen to one. If that is not put in the platform, the convention will have to seek another candidate. He says that Bryan says he is standing for principle, and that those who are trying to change him are simply swinging in the wind of expediency.

The convention will be called together at noon tomorrow, unless the present plans are upset. Bryan will be nominated at the first session. The idea is to have him as the Fourth of July candidate. It is said that he will be brought here by a special notification and escort convention, and will deliver a speech of acceptance in the hall in which he was nominated. In the hope of witness'ng this scene many thousands are coming here from nearby States. The demand for seats is unprecedented. There are 10,000 applications from Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and other trans-Missippi States.

The Telegram and Our Celebration.

The Raleigh Post.

The Guilford Battle Ground edition of the Greensboro Telegram was admirable. Indeed it was metropolitan throughout, and we not only congratulate our friends, but rejoice in the development which enables them to do such work.

The annual celebration at the Battle Ground on Wednesday promises to be worthy the occasion. The veteran soldier and scholar, General Boynton, of the United States army, delivers the oration, while many other things will occur to render the day memorable as well as enjoyable. And to the distinguished gentleman whose loyalty prompted and energy commanded the proper appreciation of the deeds of valor of North Carolinians which precipitated Yorktown and all its subsequent glories, the venerable David Schenck, do we tender felicitations on this recurrence of a day most dear to his heart, and wish that all may go well with him and his on the occasion.

Charlotte Observer.

The progressive Greensboro Telegram published a very attractive sixteen page Guilford Battle Ground edition last Saturday. The celebration there on the Fourth will be an unusually interesting one. Bishop Cheshire is to be present and open the exercises with prayer and the orator of the day is Gen. Henry V. Boynton, one of the heroes on the Federal side of the battle of Chickamauga, and a brilliant orator.

Horse Racing Tomorrow.

Lovers of the turf will have an opportunity of enjoying themselves at Vanstory's race track tomorrow afternoon. Four horses from Winston, two from Reidsville and two or three from Greensboro will be put on the track for trials of speed in the three minute, 2:30 and 2:24 classes. The races will begin at 3 o'clock, which will give all an opportunity of first attending the celebration at the Battle Ground.

An admission of 25 cents will be charged.

FEDERAL PRISONERS MOVED.

WENT TO TENNESSEE YESTERDAY.

One Made His Escape and Was Left Behind--The Election Occurs August Second--Inquiries Coming in From Germany Regarding North Carolina.

Raleigh, July 3—The number of Federal convicts sent yesterday from the penitentiary here to that at Nashville was 68. Of these 37 were white men, one white woman, 28 negro men, one negro woman. One desperate Federal prisoner was, by what seems to be great carelessness, allowed to escape yesterday. He was sent out, in company with another convict, to look after some cows, and walked away. This the other convict told. The escaped man is named C. H. Pearce. He is from this county, was convicted of moonshining and is more than suspected of incindiarism. Twelve Federal convicts, whose terms have almost expired, were left in the prison.

The receipts of the Raleigh postoffice for June were $4,000, against $2,700 for June of last year.

A handsome "white supremacy" banner is to be presented from Democratic headquarters to the county which makes the best showing as to "White Supremacy" clubs.

There appears to be in the minds of not a few people a misunderstanding as to the date of the State election. It is August 2d, which is the first Thursday in the month. The registration books are now open. The registration is an entirely new one and any person not registered loses his vote.

The State board of elections yesterday prescribed the ballots to be used. They are on smooth white paper, the State ticket being 7½x3 inches; judicial ticket, 3x2¼ inches, and the constitutional amendment ticket 3x1¼ inches. There is no device permitted.

The State charters the Statesville Grain Milling Company, capital $50,000, F. A. Sherrill and others stockholders; the Dixie Chair Manufacturing Company, Trinity, Randolph county, capital $10,000, N. C. English and others stockholders; the Business Men's Protective Association of Wilson.

The Agricultural Department, last spring had printed in German, parts of its admirable book, "North Carolina and its resources," and copies are now being widely circulated in Germany by the United State's Consuls. Inquiries as to this State are beginning to come in.

Farmers' Almanac, one of the best known North Carolina publications, which, for nearly 40 years,, was published by the late James A. Ennis of Raleigh, was sold yesterday and was bought by his sons.

The State election board has elected four of its members, all Democrats, to compose the State board of canvassers, these being Neal, McNeill, Lamb and Wilson. Gov. Russell and Secretary Thompson are ex-officio members of the board of canvassers.

The statute of Z. B. Vance arrived yesterday from Providence, R. I., sooner than was expected. It was placed in the State Arsenal. An expert will be here in a day or two to put it in position on its pedestal at the eastern front of the capital. It seems that the artist sold his interests to the Gorham manufacturing company, which has done the work admirably. The railways give notice to the statue committee that they will make special rates to the unveiling August 22; one cent a mile for military and one fare for round trip for civilians.

The executive committee of the Farmers Alliance met at Hillsboro today and decided to hold the annual meeting of that order the first Tuesday in September.

As predicted, the government crop and weather report for this State for the week ending last night, which was issued today, was very favorable from that part of the State east of the Blue Ridge. The report says the work was almost ideal, with temperatures above normal and showers at sufficient intervals to permit the proper working of crops, which in the east are generally clean and well cultivated. All reports from the central and eastern portions of the State indicate that marked improvement has taken place in the condition of crops, which are growing rapidly. Grass and weeds are complained of in some counties along the southern border. West of the Blue Ridge, however, unfavorable weather prevailed the entire week. There was again an excess of precipitation; many correspondents reported rains every day from June 24 to 30. In consequence fields in the extreme west have become very foul, and crops are suffering for want of proper cultivation. Lowlands in many instances have been under water so long that crops, chiefly corn, have been drowned out The excessive moisture also continued to damage wheat in shock.

The very favorable condition of crops reported below applies, therefore, chiefly to the middle and eastern portions of the State, although it is probable that a week or so of fair weather, permitting cultivation, would restore crops to normal condition in the west. Corn, cotton, tobacco, peanuts, and field peas all made excellent growth during the week. Much corn has been laid by in splendid condition. Cotton is growing rapidly, has a good color, and blooms are reported in many counties It is still lousy and grassy in a few southwestern counties. Tobacco is thrifty in the east and has made a good start in the central-northwest section; tobacco growers in the south portion commenced priming the last of June. Threshing wheat is progressing actively, with results not less favorable than anticipated; in fact, notwithstanding much damage by sprouting in shock, which occurred chiefly in the west, the yield of wheat will be exceptionally heavy. Oats are turning out somewhat better than expected. Rice is doing very well. Peanuts are growing rapidly, and are coming into bloom. Melons are ripening, and some are in market. Peaches are reported to be rotting badly. The prospect for grapes is fine.

Admiral Dewey said a few days ago that "he would not be a bit surprised if William J. Bryan were elected President in November."

Quite a difference in window glass—did you ever notice it? Objects seen through the ordinary cheap sort are distorted and twisted, while those seen through fine plate glass are distinct, clear cut and natural. There is the same difference, multiplied a thousand times, in good and cheap eye glasses. We fit only the best glasses, by modern methods at prices no higher than they should be for services rendered.

Amendment Notes.

Not only is Senator Pritchard's statement that the Democrats are going over to his party on the amendment not true, but the other extreme is the real fact in the case, that is, that Populists and Republicans are supporting the amendment. In a number of counties the Populist organizations have gone to pieces entirely, and all over the State many of the better and more independent class of Republicans are boldly supporting the amendment.

* * * *

Populist State Senator W. E. White, of Alexander county, will support the amendment, and offers to canvass for it.

* * * *

There will be no opposition to the Democratic ticket in Stanly county, the Republicans being too weak, says the Enterprise, to put out a ticket, and the Populists having been sufficiently amused.

* * * *

In Union county, the chairman of the Populists has declared for the amendment and he and the former Populist representative have offered their services to the Democratic chairman. The Republicans of this county have no white men, and without the Populist co-operation are helpless.

* * * *

In Anson county the attempt to throw the Populist party against the amendment has failed completely. The white Populists are supporting the Democrats. Mr. John S. Myers, a prominent Populist of Anson is president of the White Supremacy Club. The Wadesboro Messenger says: "He was chairman of the Populist county executive committee in 1896, and gave the Democrats the hardest fight they had had since 1870. But Mr. Myers has had enough of fusionism and negro rule, and proposes in the future to stand or fall with his white neighbors and friends."

* * * *

Mr. Morrison H. Caldwell, of Cabarrius, a former Populist member of the Railroad Commission, is supporting the amendment.

Not So Cold as It Looked.

"Yes," I suppose this does look like cold work," said a West Philadelphian housemaid, as her employer stopped a moment on Saturday morning to express a word of sympathy for her in her apparently chilling job. She knelt in the bitter cold, with bare arms and hands, and scrubbed her employer's marble steps. The wet, white flesh of her round and pretty arms brought forth words of commiseration from the man. She thanked him for them and said: "When you see us bare-armed maids hanging out clothes that freeze stiff before we get the clothespins in them, or when you see us scrubbing, like me, marble steps that ice over as fast as they are wetted, you think it's hard work? Well, truly, we are comfortable enough. We keep our arms and hands wet with hot water, and that is as good a protection against cold as sealskin is. As long as we keep the exposed flesh wet, it isn't really bare and exposed at all; it's protected perfectly. It looks cold, doesn't it?" asked the housemaid, glancing at her pretty bare arms.—Philadelphia Record.

There are many birds in the Philippines, though few songsters. It has been told how the martin was imported into the islands and royally received by the Spanish government. They have increased and multiplied, but they do not sing. A few thrushes do sing, but the warble of the North American songsters is missing from the piping.

is now complete. All the latest and newest machines have been added that money could buy and the plant is now unsurpassed by any in the state. The Public, and especially the ladies, is cordially invited to call at any time and view the plant. We believe they would find it interesting to see the rapidity with which our new machines turn out work. A tablecloth, sheet or counterpane is ironed in thirty seconds or a dozen smaller articles in the same length of time. Collars and cuffs are ironed at one passage through the rollers of our Domestic machine. We also have a machine especially for ironing ladies' shirt waists. To mention in detail all of our machines would require too much space; a personal inspection is necessary to take it in. We run three delivery wagons for the accommodation of our patrons. TUESDAY, JULY 3, 1900.

THE GREAT FATHER AT WASHINGTON.

This blessed government, especially when it happens to be in the hands of the Republican party, has four wards, each of which it cares for with the fondest solicitation, and each of which casts longing, loving, wistful eyes to the "Great Father at Washington." Each one looks with the fondest affection upon the 'Great Father" as having been created only to take care of it, and as confidently expects food and raiment from it as does a nestling from its parent. These four wards are the Indian, the Negro, the Pensioner, and the Southern Republican.

Perhaps of them all the red man is most independent and self-reliant and therefore more worthy of respect. He is satisfied with a visit once a month to the government's commissary. Having received his bag of rations he goes off and looks out for himself till next ration day, and doesn't ask the government to look out lest some one hurts his feelings. The second best is the darkey, because, poor fellow, he takes his all out in promises, meekly bears the burdens that one of the "Great Father's" other wards puts upon him, and longingly waits for the Father to carry out what his faithful servants have promised. He, too, possesses some little independence in trying to look out for himself and challenges our admiration for his patience and loyalty while waiting.

That leaves us two to consider, the Federal pensioner and the Southern Republican, but, as a celebrated North Carolinian has said, "there is no choice between spoilt fish," and it is too great a question to decide which of these two is the worse. We are rather inclined to decide against the pensioner of the G. A. R. on the sole ground, that, while he is a parasitic humbug, he is at least not a traitor to his race. So, by Sherlock Homes' process of eliminating the impossible, we are bound to conclude that of all the government's wards, the Southern Republican is the worst.

These men, taking North Carolina as example, with Senator Pritchard in the lead, are a party of organized whiners. The Southern people, with everything in ruin after the war; with a large part of the manhood of the section buried on the battlefield, property destroyed and everything lost, set about peacefully to rebuild their homes and the country, asking only to be let alone. Right then Southern Republicanism was born under the protection of Federal bayonets, and till this good day it has not had the courage to get from under them, but on every pretext rushes off whining like a whipped cur to the government at Washington for aid. Under that protection the people were plundered, and, when in desperation, they turned upon their despoilers, away these latter miscreants flew to Washington crying for more aid. They have always sought by bayonets, by reconstruction acts, and later by force bills, to force themselves and their measures upon our people, and invariably when they fail, they go traipsing off to Washington whining for help or revenge.

And this is true of the Southern Republican today as it was ten, twenty or thirty years ago. They have kept up one continual whine since the day the Southern people came to their own again. That whine in North Carolina has been and is today that they are cheated out of their rights. They have never ceased this whine, in spite of the fact that in 1894 they carried the entire State under a Democratic election law. Immediately in 1898 when it became apparant that they were to be turned out again, they set up the old cry, and Senator Pritchard posted off to Washington after troops to send into the State. Then a constitutional amendment was proposed in North Carolina. And away Senator Pritchard went to Washington again, to have the Senate pass a resolution declaring the proposed amendment unconstitutional. And now they can't stand up like men and face the issue proposed in the amendment, but rely solely upon having the United States courts take up their cause and fight their battles. It was the same thing in Kentucky; Taylor, unable to meet the consequence of his own acts, whined to Washington for help, and unable to get it, skulked away to another State. It has about come to the pass that if a Democrat looks cross-eyed at a Southern Republican, the poor baby goes boohooing off to Washington to tell Mr. McKinley that the barbarians down here are making faces at him. They go and make foolish speeches and when they are called down, squeal out that they are being persecuted. Notoriously unfit to run county or State, when the people refuse to put them in, they are forever squeaking that they are cheated by ballot box stuffers. They are a lot of squealers and whiners through through

The same thing is true of their politics. Everything comes down from Washington. Not a North Carolina Republican has a thought until he has heard from Pritchard, and Pritchard never has one until he has heard from Washington. From Pritchard down, every Republican politician in North Carolina was advocating free silver till the Republican platform of 1896 declared for gold, whereupon they began speaking for gold. A State convention never does a thing not cut out by the bosses, and not one delegate in 100 to a county convention has any idea what will or should be done till the bosses caucus and pass the word around. The whole party is dominated absolutely by the Federal office holders, and all matters of State interest are absolutely sacrificed to the all important matter of getting Federal jobs.

This system has absolutely crushed the life out of any independence, self reliance or character that, might have existed in Southern Republicanism. Such members of the party as show any disinclination to be thus dominated are quickly taboed. Verily the Republican party of the South is no place for a self-respecting white man. It is a party of whiners and squeakers.

The degree of intelligence represented by the Southern Republican party manifests itself when a county convention of the party assembles. Take the convention here yesterday, for instance. Perhaps there is more tolerance for Republicanism in Guilford county and the party is stronger here than in almost any of the counties that are normally Democratic. Yet this convention absolutely had no idea of parliamentary law, having proceeded nearly through its deliberations without electing a chairman.

The people want the news on celebration day just as they do at any other time. It is a newspaper's business to give the news every day. Therefore, the Telegram will depart from the custom that has heretofore existed in Greensboro, and go to its subscribers tomorrow afternoon as usual.

Never Touched It.

Contrary to the expectation and desire of many members of the party, the Republican county convention yesterday steered clear of the dispensary question. With the exception of an indirect reference in Senator Pritchard's speech, not a word was said of it, although it had been said that the convention would denounce the institution in strong terms.

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

Chapel Hill, July 2—Prof. Bentheim delivered a lecture Saturday evening in Gerard Hall on "The good, the true and the beautiful". He said that life was a picture book, filled with beautiful pictures, if we train ourselves to appreciate the good, the true and the beautiful. After carrying his audience through the famous art galleries of the world, he closed by saying after all one need not go away from home to see life's most beautiful pictures, for these were in our homes and everyday life.

Prof. Gaul and Prof. McKee, instructors in music and expression, will give a recital in Gerard Hall tonight.

Mrs. Charles L. Raper, formerly of Greensboro Female College, but now of Columbia University, will lecture here Tuesday evening.

If Germany seized the Kiao Chou peninsula in China to assauge her mental anguish over the murder by Chinese of two Catholic missionaries, how big a slice of the Flowery Kingdom will it take to comfort her for the murder of the German minister at Pekin?

A fusion candidate in Durham county wrote letters to grocery men saying he would give them his trade if they would vote for him, and making the same kind of proposition to a tobacco warehouseman. There is talk of prosecuting the Populist candidate for attempted bribery.

NORMAL AND INDUSTRIAL COLLEGE.

The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of The North Carolina State Normal and Industrial College appearing elsewhere in these columns. This college places the best educational advantages within the reach of the young women of the state at a cost ranging from $92 to $132.

We notice that 490 young women representing every section and nearly every county in North Carolina were enrolled as students during the session of 1899—1900. Of these 299, according to their own statements, would have attended no other college; 172 of them defrayed their own expenses; 40 of them earned most of their expenses; by work in the dining-room and laundry; 105 of them had taught before entering college; 427 of them were prepared partially or entirely in the public schools.

Any young woman upon taking the pledge to teach after leaving the college two years in some public school or private school of the state will receive free tuition. All free tuition students cannot secure boarding places in the dormitories, but each county is entitled to a certain number of appointments to these places. The entire expenses including the use of textbooks of a young woman holding such an appoinment would be $92 for the college year.

This county is entitled to three places in the dormitory.

GEORGIE'S PA.

He Puts On the Gloves and Is Unfortunate.

Awhile ago the Docktor told paw he must Take more Exersize than he could get putting up awnings and painting Porches or Ennything of that kind, so paw joined a Jim nazyum, and is Lurning to be a nathleet. Uncle wesley wanted him to join the golf club, but paw told him he hadent enny youse for that game becoz it duzzent help a Person to Lurn the manly art of self Defense. We could see a big chance in paw rite off after He joined. The first nite he came home with a nawful Looking Eye, and a Few days after that he neerly Broke a Laig falling offn a Horry Zontul Bar.

"But never mind," he told maw when she Complained about it. "They say these thing happen to Everybuddy when they begin. After I get a little ust to it I can stand a Blo that would nock a nox down and ast for more and its always a Good thing to no How to put up Your hands, becoz you never no what mite Happen."

"Yes," maw says, "I've notust that speshelly when you start ou to Do ennything."

Besides going to the Jim nazyum paw fixt up a place to exercise in the attick, with a Punchen bag and Injun clubs and a Lot more things to Give you mussul.

The other nite Uncle wesley and Aunt grace and the Bassets come over to make it pleasunt for us, and paw Got toi telling them About the way he had Things rigged Up, and Mrs. Bassett ser she would give ennything in the world to see a Boxing match, becoz she had Herd so much about it.

So paw invited them up to the attick to see him Punch the bag, and after he did that for awhile he asked Uncle wesley if he wouldn't like to Put on the Gloves for Friendly round. Uncle wesley is about a Head taller than paw and weighs 200 pounds before meels.

He sed he didn't care to make a munkey of himself before the folks, but paw says:

"Oh, you needn't be afrade you'll do that. I'll do it for You."

Paw and Mrs. Bassett were the only ones who saw the joke, and it seemed to tickle them a good deal.

I gess Aunt grace didn't like the way they Laft about it, for she told Uncle wesley to go ahead and Put them on just to Sho that he had a Friendly Speerut.

"All rite," Uncle wesley says, "but of Corse I don't purtend to be a Boxer."

When they Got the Gluvs on, paw sed:

"Now, you see the Differunce between oud Size. Wes, you're nearly twict as big as I am, and you Have a narm on you that ot to be Powerful. But its Not only Strength that Counts in this world. Look at David and the Giunt. If it wouldn't of been for David's skill what Sho would he Ever stood? Syunce is the Thing that counts in this World Every time. Now I'll Just Sho you people the Differunce between Syunce and broot strenth."

They hed thare Coats off and we all stood Back to Give them room, and they began to Fiddle for a nopening.

Paw danced around a good deal and put on a lot of extra Flourishes to sho How the thing ot ter be done if a Person wanted to be artistick, and then he hit Uncle wesley a smash on the Cheak and I gess it made Uncle wesley mad or sumthing, for he hauled off in his big owkward unsyentiffick style and let paw have one on the end of the Chin.

We could see the differunce between syunce and broot strenth with the naked I rite there.

After while paw set up and Looked around like if he Wondered if he had only Fell offn the Platform or if the Whole train had rolled over on Top of him, and when he could speek he sed it was a Cnance blo.

"Yes," Mrs. Bassett told Him, "we wouldn't have chanced to be thare it wouldn't of tutched You. But what's the Good of Syunce if it Can't Keep the Thing you don't expect from always Happening?"

GEORGIE, in Chicago Times-Herald.

THEY DON'T FEAR COLD.

Animals That Hail the Snowy Winter Time With Joy.

For many of the furred, and some even of the feathered tribes the frost and snow have no terrors. The hawks grow fat in snow time. The kestral finds the snow a capital background against which to view the small fry he feeds on, while the sparrow hawk soars over the clumps of underbrush watching for the sparrows as they slip in and out of shelter. All the weasel tribe rejoice.

To none more than to the domestic pussy does the cold bring joy. It is her game season. Wild birds of many sorts, in the summer shy inhabitants of the woodlands, swarm into suburban gardens, and prove easier prey than the sparrow.

Dogs revel in the clear, bright days of frost. Even short-coated fox terriers never seem to feel the cold, but scamper madly over the stiff grass. And St. Bernards lose their summer sleepiness and roll delightedly in the powdery snow.

The short, dark winter days of Canada's great Northwest hold no terrors for at least one creature. This is the wolverine, an ugly, bear-like beast, hated and feared by all the trappers. Unseen himself, he follows the hunters and watches them as they set their traps, which they do in a long line extending sometimes as much as 30 miles through the dense evergreen forest. These he visits before the gray winter dawn has broken and takes away the bait, himself far too cunning to risk capture. Or, if the trap already holds a captive, mink or ermine, this too, he tears away and devours at a safe distance. Many are the stories told of this, the greediest, most powerful and suspicious creature of its size known.

In the far North of the same vast solitudes the musk ox lives and flourishes all the year around. Fifty below zero does not matter to this quaint animal with his immensely thick, furry coat. His sharp hoofs are suited to perfection for scraping away the deep snow and laying bare the thick lichen and moss below it. Nothing but warmth worries the little musk ox. Mere freezing point is to him a Turkish bath.

Another victim to warmth is the llama, yet it lives in latitudes which maps mark as tropical. It seeks a nice cold place high on the windy table lands of the Andes, and there proves itself of great value to the natives. Water and food do not seem to worry the llama, which carries its burden easily where even mules pant with distress in the thin atmosphere of the giant mountains. The camel of the mountains, as the llama is called, small as he is, will carry a load of 100 pounds.

Dozens of different creatures happily doze the winter away—bats and bears, dormice and many others. One of the least known, and yet most interesting of these, is the hamster. This little brute is the most savage and unsociable creature known. Each in a separate hole far underground, the hamster alternately sleeps on a couch of dry grass, or awakes to stuff himself almost to bursting with the great store of corn and beans he has laid up in his winter larder. Winter is for him the season to rest and grow fat.

The editor opened his mail and thought at first that one letter contained an ode to spring. He was mistaken, but it was about as bad—an owed to the grocer.

Family Poker.

Poker has become one of the standard family games of New York, and both sexes are playing it, if anything. the women with more avidity than the men. In family parties, it is true, the game is sometimes played just "for fun" but generally for small stakes.

Perhaps the most satisfactory method is that devised by several young married couples living on the west side who get together once or twice a week to play poker. They play a "dollar limit" game, but this is not so fierce as it sounds, for all the chips are bought for ten cents on the dollar. They maintain that it sounds much better to raise the opener of a pot "a dollar" than it would to raise him " ten cents," and that by magnifying the value of their chips they play a much better game of poker.

But this is only one feature of this remarkable game. They wanted to keep it on the "friendly" basis, and felt that if the Smiths went home from the Brown's flat two or three nights in succession with all the Brown's money, friendly relations might become strained, as they say in diplomatic circles.

This scheme was devised:—The club has a banker. The losers always pay their losses, but the winners never collect their winnings. The winnings are retained by the banker, and after six or eight evenings of poker he is generally able to announce that he has $50 in the treasury. Then the club takes a vote on what to do with it.

It it is the winter, it is generally a theatre party, with a supper afterward, all the expenses being paid from the banker's fund. In summer it is a trip to some nearby summer resort. All the participants in the game declare it has furnished them with many a delightful evening and that the "money is never missed."—Exchange.

An apparatus has been devised for automatically photographing people as they enter shops and other places.

In the mean time would respectfullly request our friends and patrons ta BEWARE of the white laundry wagons and see to it that the right driver gets the bundle.
